

ment) variety of practical and reflective ur understanding and encourage		Resilience We will continue to focus on be learners. We will use the success our own progress and work toward
endence nsibility for our own learning in and collaborative activities. As ve will learn to listen to others ntributing our own.		Empathy We will learn to put ourselves in order to understand how our actio

s	We will continue our work on decimals and will apply our knowledge of the four operations to decimal numbers. We will also b the properties of shape or and build on learning from previous years for more complex 2D and 3D shapes.
	We will explore a familiar story by writing using a balance of speech and narrative to build cohesion within and across paragraph the story from different character's perspectives.
	We will focus on special relationships and our family relationships; our own wellbeing including sleep and transitioning into Ye
	We will look at the importance of diet and exercise on the human body.
erts	We will be learning the basics of concept mapping.
	We will look at where cocoa is grown and how chocolate is made. We will explore how we get chocolate into our country and we trade with. We will identify the differences in the way we live to those in Ghana and how fair trade has helped their lives. We will briefly look at the history of chocolate.
	We will design our own healthier snack bar, including designing the packaging and advertising.
	We will be using body percussion to compose using complex rhythms
	We will design a leaflet that attracts people to visit Paris using the knowledge we have gained in Summer 1.