Year 5 Homework Passport

Term: Summer

Our topic this half term is Mayan Gifts From The Gods.

Be prepared to share your termly home learning with your class by Monday 11th July. All work should be submitted via Google Classroom – please don't bring anything in.

You are still expected to complete 4 signed reads each week as well as spending some time practising your times tables.

Completed	Activity	Signed by teacher
	Create a Mayan themed menu and cook it for your family.
	Grow some plants, vegetables or fruit – eg strawberries. Keep a record (photos) of how much they grow over a month.
	Watch some Horrible History programmes on the Mayans and create a fact file showing what you've learnt.
	Design and make a sculpture using natural materials.
	Research where one of the Fairtrade products in your house comes from.
	Visit the British Museum and explore the Mayan artefacts in their collection.
	Find three plants in the wild and identify how they reproduce. Draw a diagram to show what happens.
	Design your own chocolate bar for Willy Wonka's Factory.
	Hold a blind chocolate tasting event for your family. (Have different types of chocolate for people to try and see if people can identify what they are or which flavours they prefer or try different brands of chocolate and see if you can tell the difference)
	Design and create your own Mayan mask.
	Keep a record of the food you eat in your house and find out which items are Fairtrade.
	Go to a swimming pool and see how long you can hold your breath underwater. Ask a parent to video or time you.
	Visit a chocolate shop and ask the owner how they source their Fairtrade chocolate. Write a paragraph explaining how they do this.
	Read a non-fiction book of your choice. Write five new facts that you have learnt.
	Find a picture and write a story based on this picture.
	Create your own set of Top Trumps with a minimum of ten cards– choose your own categories and subjects!
