

Worpleston Primary School – Weekly Update

Dear Parents / Carers,

Friday 7th October 2022

The children have had another fantastic and successful week in year 4! They are beginning to settle securely into their classroom routines and they are all demonstrating brilliant attitudes to their learning.

We have been so impressed this week with their non-chronological writing in English where they have been creating their own mythical dinosaurs to write about. We have heard some fantastic ideas, such as a Pizzasaurus and a Birthdaysaurus! It has been a joy to read the incredible writing they have produced.

On Thursday 20th October Worpleston are having an orange day for Challengers charity! The children have been invited to come into school wearing orange, or red or yellow if they don't have any orange. More information will be on ParentMail. This is also a PE day in year 4 so please can we encourage the children to make sure they are still wearing trainers and sensible clothes for PE.

Thursday 20th October also marks the deadline for the first payment for our exciting residential to Kingswood. If you have any questions or concerns about anything to do with the trip, please do not hesitate to contact your class teacher.

The children have been lucky enough to complete an abundance of exciting experiments this half term in Science. This week, they have been showing fantastic teamwork in completing a condensation experiment. They have been independently been using equipment to work out the rate of condensation and we have been so impressed by their engagement, as well as their fantastic understanding of states of matter.

Just a gentle reminder, please can you ensure that your children are learning their log ins. It would be really beneficial for them, both in school and at home, to access this independently.

Finally, if you have any questions or queries, please do not hesitate to contact your class teacher on the emails below:
