

Worplesdon Primary School – Weekly Update

Friday 28th April

Dear Parents / Carers,

Another week has passed here at school, the children have continued to show commitment and enthusiasm to their learning. We continue to be very proud of them.

SATs week- Breakfast

During SATs week, we will be inviting the children into school a little earlier to have some breakfast with their classmates and teachers (we do also suggest a nice, nutritious breakfast at home too!). The children will be able to come in at 8:15 for a croissant or pain au chocolat, as well as some orange or apple juice. We hope this will be a relaxing start to their day and a chance to chat to their teachers and peers in an informal way before they sit the SATs papers. We will of course accommodate for dietary requirements, however if your child does have a dietary requirement and you'd rather send them into school with something to snack on from home, that is absolutely fine!

SATs week- Peter Pan

After our final SATs paper on Friday 12th May, we'd like to reward the children with a relaxed and fun rest of the day! We haven't yet told the children however we'd like to allow them to watch Peter Pan! We'd like to watch the 2003 version, which is rated a PG. We hope you'd be happy with this, however if you do have any queries please contact your child's class teacher.

SATs week- Treat

Whilst watching Peter Pan we'd like the children to be able to bring in a small treat of their choice. Whatever the children's treat choice may be is fine, however can we please remind you this must not contain nuts, as we're a nut free school. In the afternoon, we'd like to give the children an ice lolly as we're hopeful the sun will be shining, we hope you're also okay with this.

Uniform

We've recently noticed a bit of a decline in uniform standards throughout Year 6. The most common theme we're noticing is children wearing trainers instead of school shoes. We can absolutely empathise with children growing out of their school shoes and clothes, however can we please ask you to notify us if there is an issue.

PE-Notes from home

Finally, can we please politely ask that if your child cannot take part in PE, that you notify your child's class teacher via email or note. Thank you in advance for your support with this.

This week, we'd like to congratulate the following children who received Golden Leaves:

Wrens

Riley-For using alliteration effectively in his writing this week.

Sophia-For excellent use of figurative language in her Alma story this week.

Barry-James-For developing his skills in netball.
