

Key Vocabulary
leaf	Absorbs sunlight to make food for the plant.
roots	Absorbs water and nutrients from the soil and anchors the plant in place.
flower	Helps the plant to reproduce and create new life
stem	Carries water to different parts of the plant and holds it upright.
seed	Part of a plant that can grow into a new plant.
water transportation	The movement of water from the roots, through the stem, to the leaves and flowers.
seedling	A young plant grown from a seed that has not yet fully grown.
germination	The process of a seed sending out its first leaves and roots.
stamen	The male parts of a flowering plant.
pistil	The female parts of a flowering plant.
pollination	The transfer of pollen from the male parts to female parts of a plant.
seed dispersal	The movement of seeds away from the parent plant.

